

Site No. 130
Map 4
Name of Site: Lundy-Bubb Homestead,
Pennsdale, Pennsylvania

This large stone Quaker farmhouse is on a hill behind the Meeting House and was built in 1794. The style of the building is severe and it is still the center of a working farm.

Site classified architectural - dwelling

Site No. 131
Map 4
Name of Site: House of Many Stairs,
Pennsdale, Pennsylvania

The Brant House in Pennsdale is one of the most interesting of the early stone houses. High aesthetic appeal inside and out, this house also served as a tavern and a stop on the Underground Railroad.

Site classified architectural - dwelling